Announcement

for the 40th Symposium of Byzantine and Post-Byzantine Archeology and Art of the Christian Archaeological Society

The Board of the Christian Archaeological Society, given the current circumstances of the pandemic, has decided to move the Symposium in May 2021, in the hope that pandemic conditions will allow it. We hope that by the end of autumn 2020 we will be able to share with you more accurate information.

The Board has also decided, in common with the director of the Byzantine Museum Dr Katerina Dellaporta, to hold in the courtyard of the Byzantine Museum on the afternoon of Saturday, 17 October 2020, the established during the Symposium General Assembly of the Society. After the end of the Assembly will take place the presentation of the 41st volume of the Deltion (2020) and the awarding of prizes in memory of Nikolaos Drandakis, Titos Papamastorakis and Vasso Penna. A small reception, will follow. The program will be announced in time.

Wishing you a safe summer!

On behalf of the Board,

The President

Prof. Em. Maria Panayotidi-Kesisoglou

The Secretary General

Dr Ioanna Bitha
