CALL FOR PAPERS

DELTION OF THE CHRISTIAN ARCHAEOLOGICAL SOCIETY (DChAE) 43 (2022)

dedicated to the memory of CYRIL A. MANGO

NEW Deadline for submissions: Sunday, October 24, 2021

As already known the eminent Byzantinist Cyril A. Mango passed away on the 8th of February, 2021. The Board of the Christian Archaeological Society (ChAE), of which he was an honorary member, acknowledging his enormous contribution to Byzantine Studies has decided to honour him by dedicating to his memory the 43rd volume of the Deltion of the Christian Archaeological Society/DChAE (2022). Greek and foreign archaeologists and historians of Byzantine art and architecture are invited to contribute to the volume with original studies related to the Early Christian and Byzantine periods (300-1453). Due to Cyril Mango's multi-faceted activity as a scholar, historians and philologists are also invited to contribute to the volume with original studies related to the history of art. As with previous honorary volumes, submissions should not exceed the 5,000 words (text and footnotes) and contain no more than eight photographs and drawings/plans.

In accordance with the editorial guidelines of the Deltion of the ChAE, each submission will be evaluated for approval by two anonymous reviewers designated by the Society's Board.

Papers submitted for consideration should be prepared following the Guidelines for Authors:
http://ejournals.epublishing.ekt.gr/index.php/deltion/about/submissions#authorGuidelines

All papers should be submitted in a single file, pdf and word, avoiding any mention of the author's name and any acknowledgements in the footnotes. Submissions must be placed in the electronic platform of the Deltion of the Christian Archaeological Society:

The submitted file must include in the following order (a) the title of the paper, (b) an abstract of max. 80 words, (c) at least four keywords indicating the period, the place, general and specific subject and finally the site and the monument, encompassed by the paper, (d) the text with footnotes, (e) a summary of ca. 1,000 words, (f) the list of the Figures with subtitles and their provenance/copyrights. At the end of the file, the illustrations in law resolution must be included (one figure in each page). In case that the language of the paper is other than the English, all the above information (a, b, c) must be in English.

Once the paper has been accepted for publication, the final text must be submitted together with the author's name and affiliation, the acknowledgments and the illustrations as high-resolution digital file (at least 300 dpi).

Due to the implementation of the electronic version of the Deltion of the ChAE, and in accordance with established international practice, authors of papers accepted for publication are kindly requested to provide the necessary licences for the study and the publication of the archaeological material and also to sign a contract with the Christian Archaeological Society, in which copyright matters are clarified.

Authors who have not yet made their subscription to the electronic platform of the Deltion of the ChAE must do it following the instructions in the link below:
